口试试题(教师用卷)

(共20分)

I. Choose one of the passages and read it. (5 points)

(A)

Tony told me that life would not be easy if I became famous overnight. He became richer and more confident, but troubles came soon. Fans followed him almost everywhere. Tony had to wear sunglasses and a beard pretending that he was someone else.

In short, Tony's experience made me think a lot. It costs so much to be famous. In fact, not everybody can be a star. Playing music is a personal hobby. We can regard music as our best friend when feeling lonely or sad. As for myself, I will try my best to make a successful band and realize my dream. But most importantly, I'll enjoy the music itself and have fun, just as Tony told me.

(B)

Ladies and gentlemen, may I have your attention, please? There will be three animal shows this afternoon here in the city zoo. The first show begins at three o'clock. There, tigers, lions, and bears, will bring us a lot of fun. The second show will be a feeding of monkeys at four o'clock. You can play with the monkeys. The last show will be at 4:30 in the large bird cage, where Dr Smith will give you a guided tour, pointing out more than 300 kinds of birds from South America.
