One day, three turtles wanted to have a party. So they went into a cafe and ordered three cups of coffee.

Then, the lovely weather suddenly turned into heavy rain.

The biggest turtle said to the smallest one, "Go home and get an umbrella."

"I will, if you don't drink my coffee," the smallest one answered.

"Of course! We won't drink your coffee!" the other two turtles said.

The smallest turtle then went to the door to leave.

Time flew by quickly and two years passed (过去). The two turtles were still at the table waiting. The biggest turtle said to the other one, "Well, I guess he isn't coming back, so we can drink his coffee."

At that moment, a voice came from outside the door. It was from the smallest turtle. "Oh, no! If you drink my coffee, I won't go," he said.

In fact, everyone's hair is white. When you are young, your hair has pigment (色素) in it. Hair has only two kinds of pigments: dark and light. The pigment gives your hair its colour. When you are older, the pigment stops working. Hair will be gray or white.

You have more than 100,000 hairs on your head. You lose about 50 to 100 hairs every day. But don't worry! New hairs will grow. But some people have hair loss (脱发). Their hair doesn't grow back again. This often happens to men.

What kind of hair do you have? Black or brown? Our skin (皮肤) colour goes with the colour of our hair. People with blonde hair have light skin. People with black hair have dark skin. Usually, your hair colour is like one or both parents' hair colour.

根据短文内容, 判断正 (T) 误 (F)。

- () 56. Hair has two kinds of pigments: dark and light.
- () 57. Old women's hair is white because their hair doesn't grow back.
